

FIVE MATTERS FOR DETERMINATION — NO IDENTIFIED JUDICIAL DETERMINATIONS

Judicial Review AC-2025-LON-004293 | Zahmoul v Secretary of State for Justice & HMCTS

Each matter below was formally raised through recognised legal procedures and required a simple binary determination.

If such determinations exist, they can be identified by judge, date, order, and reasons. None have been identified.

Accordingly, no judicial determinations have been identified in respect of the matters set out below.

1. PARTICIPATION MEASURES (AUTISM / PTSD)

Participation measures were granted during trial and removed post-trial without order, hearing, or reasons.

QUESTION

Does a judicial order exist revoking those measures (judge, date, reasons)?

ANSWER GIVEN BY COURT

No identified judicial determination

2. MAINTENANCE PENDING SUIT (MPS)

Court-ordered maintenance ceased (Feb–May 2024) and arrears were retrospectively remitted without a hearing.

QUESTION

Was it judicially determined that non-enforcement and retrospective remission were lawful?

ANSWER GIVEN BY COURT

No identified judicial determination

3. SWORN FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE (OXUS SHARES)

Shares declared at $0 (19 Feb 2024). SEC Proxy Statement (16 Jan 2024) confirms an approximate value of $565,000. Nasdaq listing: 8 Feb 2024.
