

KAZAKHSTAN

Hunter and Archer were deeply imbedded with the highest levels of government and wealth in Kazakhstan. Alongside an American-born banker named Marc Holtzman (a former vice chairman⁷⁵² of Barclays who helped coordinate the meetings), Hunter and his activities can be put into two boxes: he 1) acted as unregistered agent for oligarch Kenes RAKISHEV⁷⁵³⁷⁵⁴ and the then-Prime Minister of Kazakhstan, Karim MASSIMOV, and 2) attempted to strike a deal between Burisma and the China National Offshore Oil Corporation (CNOOC), which would have utilized energy reserves in Kazakhstan. CNOOC is under U.S. sanctions for actions in the South China Sea. MASSIMOV, a graduate⁷⁵⁵ of Wuhan University, has been praised by CCP-controlled⁷⁵⁶ outlets because he “work[ed] with China to promote the construction of the Belt and Road.”⁷⁵⁷ However, praise from the CCP could not keep MASSIMOV from serious legal troubles—he was charged with treason in January 2022.⁷⁵⁸

Archer was eager to introduce Hunter to RAKISHEV, who he described as the “the son in law of the Mayor of Astana □ Kazakhstan’s richest man.” RAKISHEV was apparently keen on “capitalizing Rosemont Seneca Partners in some way[,] shape[,] or form.” Vitaly PRUSS, the president of TriGlobal Strategic Ventures (TriGlobal), told Archer that RAKISHEV was “worth close to a billion in his own right.” TriGlobal employed the aforementioned KOTLARSKY and worked closely with figures⁷⁵⁹ connected to PUTIN—the firm’s founders ingratiated themselves with whomever was close to power.⁷⁶⁰ RAKISHEV’s father-in-law, Imangali TASMAGAMBETOV, was the ambassador to Russia.

Thanks for getting back to me so quickly David.

In addition to wishing the prayers for T's health two very simple messages were conveyed to me from Minister Idrisov so I believe it will be a brief but important call.

1. Idrisov stressed it is very important to him to relay to his President that there is a direct dialogue opened between him and Secretary Kerry before Idrisov reports back to Nazarbayev on his trip to the to meet the Sec. (ie. in their view the meeting was the key focus of their trip and the Idrisov / Nazarbayev meeting is tomorrow).

2. Secondly, he said there is a subject as it relates to Afghanistan that he needs to relay directly to the Sec.

I do not envision any requests as far as I've been briefed.

RAKISHEV was so close with Hunter and Archer that he referred to them in familial terms when he inquired about their illegal back-channeling: “Brothers[,] how is our meeting with JK [John Kerry]? Pl[ea]s[e] last push! That will be great! Thanks!” Archer responded calmly: “He [Kerry] is ready to visit KZ [Kazakhstan]. If we [RAKISHEV and Hunter’s firm] have some business⁷⁶⁴ started as planned[,] I will ensure its [sic] planned soonest.” Well, as luck would have it, “some business” between the parties began to materialize: CNOOC wanted a chunk of Kazakhstan’s vast oil reserves—and Burisma was a natural fit, in Archer’s mind, to operate the rigs above those reserves: “If we can connect the dots here between CNOOC and Burisma[,] we can do only that, forever.” The following year, Hunter’s dad and Archer’s mentor (Kerry) worked to shut down the U.S.’s Keystone pipeline.⁷⁶⁶

One of RAKISHEV's many shell⁷⁶⁷ companies—Novatus Holding Pte. Ltd., domiciled⁷⁶⁸ in Singapore—wired $142,300⁷⁶⁹ to Archer's bank account at Rosemont Seneca Bohai, LLC on 04/22/2014. ABLV Bank, based in Latvia, facilitated the transaction, the memo for which read: "For a car." ABLV bank was a favorite money laundering vehicle for criminals like RAKISHEV and Archer; in fact, because ABLV was intimately involved "in North Korea's procurement or export of ballistic missiles"⁷⁷⁰ and other egregious illegal activity, the U.S. Treasury effectively killed the bank by cutting it off from the U.S. financial sector.⁷⁷¹

FinCEN Names ABLV Bank of Latvia an Institution of Primary Money Laundering Concern and Proposes Section 311 Special Measure

CONTACT: NEW YORK, 703-973-7770
 Immediate Release: February 13, 2018

FinCEN Finds the Bank Orchestrates Money Laundering Schemes, Obstructs Regulatory Enforcement, and Has Conducted Activity Linked to North Korea

WASHINGTON — The U.S. Department of the Treasury's Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN) today issued a finding and notice of proposed rulemaking (NPRM), pursuant to Section 311 of the USA PATRIOT Act, seeking to prohibit the opening or maintaining of a correspondent account in the United States by, or on behalf of, ABLV Bank. FinCEN is proposing this action based on its finding set out in the NPRM that ABLV is a foreign bank of primary money laundering concern.

"FinCEN will continue to take action against foreign banks that disregard anti-money laundering safeguards and become conduits for widespread illicit activity," said Steven F. Prusich, Secretary of the Treasury. "Deliberate practices at banks foster a wide array of illicit conduct, including activity linked to North Korea's weapons program and corruption connected to Russia and Ukraine. FinCEN is committed to protecting the U.S. financial system from these types of risks."

As detailed in the finding, ABLV has initiated and/or money laundering as a part of the bank's business practices. ABLV's management permits the bank and its employees to orchestrate money laundering schemes; solicits high-risk shell company activity that enables the bank and its customers to launder funds; maintains inadequate controls over high-risk shell company accounts; and is complicit in the circumvention of AML/CFT controls at the bank. As a result, multiple actors have exploited the bank in furtherance of illicit financial activity, including transactions for parties connected to U.S. and UN-designated entities, some of which are involved in North Korea's procurement or export of ballistic missiles. In addition, ABLV management seeks to obstruct ABLV's failure to implement, and disregard for, effective AML/CFT and sanctions policies and procedures have made the bank attractive to a range of illicit actors engaged in organized crime, weapons proliferation, corruption, and sanctions evasion. Illicit financial activity at the bank includes transactions for parties connected to UN-designated entities, some of which are involved in North Korea's procurement or export of ballistic missiles. In addition, ABLV has facilitated transactions for corrupt politically exposed persons and parties funded billions of dollars in public corruption and asset stripping proceeds through shell company accounts. ABLV failed to mitigate the risk stemming from these accounts, which involved large scale illicit activity connected to Azerbaijan, Russia, and Ukraine.

Section 311 activities alert the U.S. financial sector to foreign banks, such as ABLV, that are of primary concern and through the public rulemaking process, if necessary, cut them off from the U.S. financial sector.

The NPRM as submitted to the Federal Register is currently available here.
 Written comments on the NPRM may be submitted within 60 days of publication.

1. The Extent to Which ABLV Has Been Used to Facilitate or Promote Money Laundering, Including by Entities Involved in the Proliferation of Weapons of Mass Destruction or Missiles

According to information available to FinCEN, ABLV executives, shareholders, and employees have used the bank to promote money laundering as a part of the bank's business practices.

ABLV management orchestrates, and permits the bank and its employees to engage in, money laundering schemes. Management solicits the high-risk shell company activity that enables the bank and its customers to launder funds, maintains inadequate controls over high-risk shell company accounts, and is complicit in the circumvention of AML/CFT controls at the bank. As a result, multiple actors have exploited the bank in furtherance of illicit financial activity, including transactions for parties connected to U.S. and UN-designated entities, some of which are involved in North Korea's procurement or export of ballistic missiles. Hunter--I understand and good to hear from you. I will check on this and get back with you. It certainly is possible. Do you own the Porsche free of any loan? I need to check on Alpina availability.

Hope all else is well and back with you soon. Jim

The aforementioned energy deal—which Hunter’s colleagues discussed using the code name of “Project Carmen”—between CNOOC⁷⁷⁵ and Burisma was going to be capitalized with $40M by BHR. Archer told POZHARSKYI that the “primary meeting [was] set [up] with the Prime Minister of KZ [Kazakhstan], Masimof [sic], on June 2nd [2014]. Everything will revolve around that meeting and the subject will be securing the highest quality proven reserve fields in KZ” in order for Burisma to then send those energy deposits to China.⁷⁷⁶ Hunter not only violated the FARA by advocating for “Nikolay’s visa issue[s]” to U.S. feds, but he also declined Secret Service protection in Kazakhstan.

Quick answer is I do not have an answer just yet but that's what I am thinking about, researching and formulating. CNOOC is a nice to have in the situation that make it a silver bullet. I do know that. Getting assigned blocks in KZ for Burisma is a windfall in itself. I will be back shortly as I try and drill down on a conceptual deal.

Holtzman, who at that time was the Chairman⁷⁷⁷ of Kazkommertsbank (the largest so-called “private” bank in the post-Soviet nation), wanted Archer—and Hunter—to join him and MASSIMOV⁷⁷⁸ for breakfast in a private suite⁷⁷⁹ at the Willard Hotel. The prime minister was “eager” to discuss “several matters” with Hunter and Archer. As was standard practice, these sorts of invitations were sent to Archer—the parties wanted Hunter (and presumably Joe) to be able to claim plausible deniability.

The following week, MASSIMOV was still on Hunter's mind as he formulated the guest list for the aforementioned dinner with Joe and his business partners. Hunter confessed the scheme in an email to Michael Karloutsos, the son of the then-leader⁷⁸⁰ of the Greek Orthodox Church in America: "Ok- the reason for the dinner is ostensibly to discuss food security. Dad [Joe] will be there but keep that btw [between] us for now. □ Most notable [sic] the Prime minister [MASSIMOV] of a country[.] I'll tell you over [the] phone." Karloutsos gleefully replied: "Everything is between us. All good! □ I know you mentioned your dad [Joe] would probably join the dinner as well." Karloutsos and Hunter also sought Chinese cash together, even exploring an ill-fated venture which involved shipping Chinese railcars to Greece. Incredibly, Karloutsos—a friend of Reince Priebus—worked at the State Department under President Trump.⁷⁸¹ Xanthi, Michael's mother, serves on the board of the Beau Biden Foundation.⁷⁸²

As previously noted, Archer was repeatedly sent invitations—even from foreign ministries with the son (KARIM) of their prime minister ccd—that were actually intended for Hunter. The practice was an effort to create layers between Hunter and the influence that was being sought, in order for Hunter to claim plausible deniability and leave as little of a paper trail as possible. As he himself explained to Hunter, Archer was the loyal “front man” who organized one-on-one, face-to-face meetings with Secretary Kerry in Hunter’s place. Hunter bragged about these connections, even to Americans.⁷⁸⁶

14. ABSTRACT
 After the collapse of the Soviet Union, new independent states have emerged in Central Asia: Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan, and Uzbekistan. Central Asia has been a strategically important region during the Great Game and is becoming more important as each of the great powers finds interests in the region. The precarious stability in Central Asia is at stake and it is vital to understand how it is undermined, as instability will cause problems for the international community. This monograph examines the causes of instability in Central Asia, in particular, ethnic strife, border issues, resource scarcity, radicalism, and drug trafficking and examines how to identify pockets of instability in the region in order to create longer-term stability in Central Asia.

Hunter's "food security" cover story for hosting the dinner at Cafe Milano with Joe was an old trick he had used for decades. Hunter's "humanitarian"⁷⁸⁷ nonprofit grift allowed him to mix his commercial interests with photo ops surrounded by indigent foreigners. Rick Leach—who was the president of the World Food Program USA—used his position to engage in lobbying violations with Hunter, who "met with Dad [Joe] and talked about Title 2 [of the U.S. Congress appropriations bill]." Bruce Reed, a Clinton appointee, and David Wade (Kerry's aide) were also targets of the illegal lobbying effort.⁷⁸⁸
