The Matrimonial Causes Act 1973

The marriage of Nadia Zahmoul and Karim Noureddine Zahmoul

Before His Honour Judge Ashby, sitting at the Family Court at Central Family Court, First Avenue House, 42-49 High Holborn, London, WC1V 6NP on the 14th February 2025.

The parties

1. The applicant is Nadia Zahmoul who represented herself, she attended by video

The respondent is Karim Noureddine Zahmoul who represented himself, he attended in person

Recitals

2. Participation directions were made today to assist the Applicant with taking part in the proceedings. The parties were separated from the view of each other by screens and the Court took additional time to explain matters. This was on account of the Applicant's mental and physical health.
3. The hearing was listed to consider the Respondent's application for an order for a Judge to sign the transfer documents in accordance with paragraph 27(g) of the Order of Mr Justice MacDonald of 24 May 2024
4. On 13 February 2025 an application was issued by the Applicant in the High Court (Family Division) for an order to set aside the order of 24 May 2024 (purportedly pursuant to section 31F(6) of the Matrimonial and Family Proceedings Act 1984). The Respondent had not seen that application and so the Court explained the application to him. That application has been listed before Mr Justice MacDonald on 31 March 2025 at 10.30.
5. The order of 24 May 2024 has been the subject of an unsuccessful appeal to the Court of Appeal (case number CA-2024-001342). The Applicant told the Court she has made a further application in that appeal.

IT IS ORDERED THAT:

Further hearing

6. The Respondent's application (to have the transfer documents signed by a judge) is adjourned and is to be listed at the existing hearing at 10.30 on 31 March 2025 before Mr Justice MacDonald.

Transfer

7. The Respondent's application is transferred to the High Court and reserved to Mr Justice MacDonald (with his consent).

Costs

8. Costs reserved.
