In the matter of an application for Judicial Review

The King on the application of

NADIA ZAHMOUL

-and-

SECRETARY OF STATE FOR JUSTICE
HM COURTS AND TRIBUNALS SERVICE

Defendants

Application for permission to apply for Judicial Review
NOTIFICATION of the Judge's decision (CPR Part 54.11, 54.12)

Following consideration of the documents lodged by the Claimant and the Defendants

Order by the Honourable Mrs Justice Collins Rice

1. The Defendants' application dated 23rd December 2025 for an extension of time is granted.
2. Permission for Judicial Review is refused.
3. The application is totally without merit and the Claimant may not request that the decision to refuse permission be reconsidered at an oral hearing.
4. The Claimant is to pay the Defendants the cost of their Acknowledgment of Service in the sum of £3,125.50. This is a final order as to costs unless within 14 days the Claimant notifies the Court and the Defendants, in writing, that she objects to paying costs, or objects to the amount now ordered to be paid, in either case giving reasons. If she does so, the Defendants have a further 14 days to respond to both the Court and the Claimant, and the Claimant has the right to reply within a further 7 days, after which the Defendants' claim for costs and any submissions in relation to it will be put before a judge to be determined on the papers.

Observations

The Claimant seeks to bring these proceedings in the context of her family law divorce proceedings which appear to have concluded in May 2024. She made criminal complaints against her husband also in that context. By her present application she complains of the Defendants' response to those criminal complaints, and of the outcome of certain complaints she made to HMCTS in relation to procedural matters in the family proceedings, and of the alleged failure of HMCTS to enforce certain orders made in those proceedings.

This application is wholly misconceived.

The Defendants have no arguable public law duty or function in relation to the criminal complaints.

The procedural matters she complains of in the family proceedings appear to relate to judicial determinations, to which the administrative matters complained of are ancillary, and accordingly not amenable to judicial review to the extent that they depend on those determinations. The judicial determinations themselves are not amenable to judicial review based on alleged breaches of the Equality Act and PSED.

The enforcement of court orders is a matter for ordinary court enforcement processes and needed to be pursued in that context, not by way of collateral JR proceedings.

The application is also very substantially out of time in relation to the matters complained of, and no explanation for the delay appears. It is not clear what, if any, available remedy the Claimant seeks at this distance of time. The application would also fall to be refused on those grounds alone.
