In the matter of an application for judicial review

THE KING

on the application of

NADIA ZAHMOUL

Claimant

-and-

SECRETARY OF STATE FOR JUSTICE
HM COURTS AND TRIBUNALS SERVICE

Defendant

On an application by the Claimant for an Order to revoke the Order of Mrs Justice Collins Rice on the 11.3.26, refusing permission to bring Judicial Review proceedings and declaring the application as Totally Without Merit.

Following consideration of the documents lodged by the Claimant and reading the documents lodged by the Defendants for the Permission application

ORDER BY THE HON. Mr JUSTICE GOOSE

- (1) The application made under CPR 3.1(7) to revoke the Order of Mrs Justice Collins Rice is refused.
- (2) No Order as to Costs

REASONS

This application for revocation of the Order under CPR 3.1(7) made on the 11.3.26 is totally without merit (TWM), after permission to bring the claim for Judicial Review was refused and also declared TWM. The Claimant seeks to avoid the consequences of a TWM direction by making this application rather than seeking to appeal to the Court of Appeal Civil Division, either in time or with a time extension.

In any event, the criticism made of the decision and reasons for the Order on the 11.3.26 are TWM. The decision was not wrong and was open to the Judge having considered all of the arguments raised by the Claimant and the Defendants. It was unnecessary for the Judge expressly to address each point raised, when providing reasons for the refusal of permission.

Further, the Claimant has failed to explain or provide proper reasons for the application for permission to bring the proceedings, not being brought promptly and in any event within 3 months after any grounds are said to have arisen.

Accordingly, there is no merit in the application to revoke the Order.
