NZ-L-03	Daily Mail — Prince Andrew: ‘A Secret Deal on Behalf of Friends’	Published article 20 May 2016	Daily Mail. Written by Guy Adams. Published 20 May 2016. Public domain.	Published investigative article containing the primary documentary evidence of direct personal contact between Andrew and Rakishev. Key exhibit: the email of 14 April 2011, reproduced in full as a photograph, signed 'A. HRH The Duke of York KG', addressed 'Dear Kenes', sent from Andrew's private Unitech-hosted email account. The Palace initially claimed the email was a forgery, then instructed Harbottle & Lewis to block publication on privacy grounds. Both positions failed. The email establishes direct personal contact. It is the foundation of the Andrew/Rakishev thread.
NZ-L-03a	The Andrew/Rakishev Email — 14 April 2011	Original email 14 April 2011 / Published 20 May 2016	Scanned image of original email as published by the Daily Mail 20 May 2016. Public domain.	The primary document establishing direct personal contact between Andrew Mountbatten-Windsor and Kenes Rakishev. Sent 14 April 2011 at 14:57. Subject: 'Our call.' Opens: 'Dear Kenes.' Signed: 'A. HRH The Duke of York KG.' Sent from Andrew's private Unitech-hosted email account — not a UK government address. Instructs his Private Secretary Amanda Thirsk to connect Rakishev with the Deputy Head of Kazakhstan's Prime Minister's office. Describes the consortium as 'we' — placing Andrew inside the business arrangement. One document. One signature. Unambiguous.

NZ-L-04	Epstein Files — EFTA00760183	Federal discovery document 20 April 2010	US federal discovery — Epstein investigation. Released January 2025. Public domain.	Email from David Stern to Jeffrey Epstein dated 20 April 2010, subject: 'Business Week: U.K.'s Prince Andrew to Help Kazakh Companies Find Investors.' Forwards Bloomberg article reporting Andrew's fourth official trade visit to Kazakhstan, his meeting with head of Samruk-Kazyna sovereign wealth fund (which controlled BTA Bank — subsequently acquired by Rakishev in 2014), and his offer to organise meetings between British investors and Kazakh companies. Establishes that Epstein was actively monitoring Andrew's Kazakhstan dealings one year before the April 2011 email to Rakishev. Andrew was arrested on 19 February 2026 on suspicion of misconduct in public office during his tenure as UK Special Representative for International Trade and Investment.
NZ-L-04a	BBC News — The Third Man Who Links Andrew with Jeffrey Epstein	Published article 28 February 2026	BBC News. Written by Ben King, Business Reporter. Published 28 February 2026. Public domain.	Investigative article published following the DOJ release of Epstein files. Confirmed facts: (1) David Stern appears in more than 7,000 of the DOJ's released files spanning 2008 to 2018; (2) Stern ran Asia Gateway Ltd, registered at 81 Fulham Road, London SW3 6RD; (3) Stern became a director of Pitch@Palace in 2016 and was appointed to the board of St George's House — a royal charity based at Windsor Castle; (4) Stern called Epstein 'boss', 'my mentor', and 'my general'; (5) Epstein introduced Stern to Andrew and Ferguson; (6) Stern resigned from Pitch@Palace weeks after Epstein's arrest in 2019.
NZ-L-04b	Guardian — 'I Am Always on Your Team!!' How Andrew's Aide Kept Close Ties with Epstein	Published article 6 February 2026	The Guardian. Written by Daniel Boffey, Chief Reporter. Published 6 February 2026. Public domain.	The most detailed published account of the Stern/Andrew/Epstein triangle. Key confirmed facts from DOJ files include: April 2016 Stern arranged palace access for Epstein's girlfriend; February 2011 Stern named his UK company 'Witan' after the Anglo-Saxon royal council: 'PA likes it and since he did not know what it was when I told him it should be safe'; June 2013 Stern controlled Andrew's diary on Epstein's instructions; November 2015 Stern arranged for Andrew to text Jes Staley, newly appointed CEO of Barclays; February 2018 Stern and Andrew together in Tokyo — eight years after Andrew claimed he cut contact with Epstein. CRITICAL: Andrew was arrested on 19 February 2026 on

NZ-L-09	JR Statement — Undetermined Matters (AC-2025-LON-004293)	Public court filing 23 February 2026	Filed in Administrative Court AC-2025-LON-004293. CE-File public record. GitHub archive: github.com/nadiazahmoul/Zahmoul-v-SSJ-HMCTS-Public-Archive	Public court document filed in live judicial review proceedings. Names Rakishev explicitly as 'the controlling shareholder of Oxus Acquisition Corp (NASDAQ: OXUS), the entity whose financial representations lie at the centre of the undetermined matters in this Judicial Review.' Connects Rakishev directly to Andrew Mountbatten-Windsor — arrested on 19 February 2026 on suspicion of misconduct in public office — in a filed public court document. The JR was refused as TWM on 11 March 2026 (Collins Rice J) and renewed permission was refused on 7 May 2026 (Goose J). The order of 7 May 2026 closed the final domestic JR route. Neither order addressed the documentary discrepancy.
NZ-L-10	Affidavit in Support of Contempt Application N600	Sworn court document 18 October 2024	Sworn affidavit filed by Nadia Zahmoul in High Court proceedings BV20D01752.	Sworn affidavit filed in support of the contempt application dated 18 October 2024. Contains the most precise statement of the perjury allegation: sworn ES2 dated 19 February 2024 declared Oxus shares at $0; Campbell KC made three oral false submissions on 19, 26, and 28 February 2024; Respondent directed his legal team to ignore solicitors' emails of 29 February, 4 and 6 March 2024 seeking explanation. Identifies SEC Regulation S-K disclosure obligations as the applicable standard.

Ref	Title	Type & Date	Source	Description & Analytical Significance
				States the perjury allegation under Perjury Act 1911 s.1 precisely. As a sworn court document, it carries the highest evidential weight in this package.
NZ-L-11	Suppression of Oxus SPAC and Association with Rakishev	Analytical document 2024	Authored by Nadia Zahmoul. Grounded in SEC primary filings, judgment text, solicitors' correspondence, and sworn evidence.	Analytical document identifying the suppression mechanism. Identifies Marc Holtzman — former Vice Chairman of Barclays Capital, former Chairman of Kazkommertsbank Kazakhstan — as the documented connector between Zahmoul and Rakishev. Analyses judgment paragraphs 5, 8, 76 and 93 — the only four paragraphs referencing Oxus — showing what each suppresses. Reproduces the solicitors' emails of 28 February and 4 March 2024 demanding explanation from Zahmoul's legal team — no reply was received. Identifies the Campbell KC false submissions in their precise context.
NZ-L-12	Hunter Biden Laptop Report — Kazakhstan Section	Published report excerpt	Published report on the Hunter Biden laptop. Public domain.	Extract from the published report covering the Kazakhstan section. Findings: (1) identifies Rakishev as acting as unregistered agent for the Kazakh oligarchy alongside Massimov; (2) identifies Marc Holtzman as coordinating the meetings between Hunter Biden and the Kazakhstan network; (3) identifies Hunter Biden's two-category role: acting as unregistered agent for Rakishev and Massimov, and attempting to broker a Burisma/CNOOC deal using Kazakhstan energy reserves; (4) confirms Massimov charged with treason January 2022.
NZ-L-13	SEC Whistleblower TCR Confirmation — 17284-760-060-567	SEC Whistleblower filed 9 October 2024 11:26 EDT	US Securities and Exchange Commission Whistleblower Program. Confirmation document for submission TCR 17284-760-060-567.	SEC Tips, Complaints and Referrals confirmation. Covers: (1) Oxus Acquisition Corp (Registration 333-273967, CIK 1852973) — failure to comply with SEC Regulation S-K Title 17, Part 229.103 regarding the ongoing IRS:CI criminal investigation; deficient AML due diligence into Sponsor funds and Rakishev funds; (2) Tavia Acquisition Corp (Registration 333-280275, CIK 2020385) — parallel vehicle in the same structure. Names IRS:CI Special Agent Robert McGarry as the assigned federal agent. Documents the Hunter Biden / Devon Archer / Café Milano dinner with Rakishev and Massimov on 16 April 2015 and the February 2014 Hay Adams Hotel meeting in Washington DC.
