

ACCOUNTABILITY MAP — INSTITUTIONAL RESPONSIBILITY ON PUBLIC RECORD

*This document is distributed to every institution and individual named below.
Each recipient is on notice that this record is public, timestamped, and archived.
When this matter becomes the subject of press, parliamentary, or regulatory scrutiny, each institution will be asked what it knew and what it did.*

INSTITUTION / INDIVIDUAL	ROLE	CONTACT	ACCOUNTABLE FOR GOVERNMENT
Rt Hon David Lammy KC MP	Deputy PM, Lord Chancellor, Secretary of State for Justice	david.lammy.mp@parliament.uk pslordchancellor@justice.gov.uk	Ministerial responsibility for the administration of justice, HMCTS, and judicial conduct. Copied on every submission. A KC — understood the material. Zero substantive response. Will be asked: "You were informed of documented perjury involving a Kazakh oligarch connected to Prince Andrew and Epstein. What did you do?"
Rt Hon Lord Hermer KC	Attorney General	correspondence@attorneygeneral.gov.uk	Chief legal adviser to the Crown. Oxus perjury referral and contempt application sent 21 May 2025. No response. A KC. The AG has the power to bring contempt proceedings and to refer unduly lenient sentences. The perjury was placed before him directly. He is accountable for the decision not to act.
OPPOSITION
Rt Hon Kemi Badenoch MP	Leader of the Opposition	kemi.badenoch.mp@parliament.uk	Constitutional role to hold the Government to account. Currently raising the Mandelson/Epstein vetting question. The documentary record set out here documents a related network where perjury was committed in a UK court and no institution acted. She has political incentive and constitutional duty to raise it.

Nick Timothy MP	Shadow Lord Chancellor, Shadow Secretary of State for Justice	nick.timothy.mp@parliament.uk	Directly shadows David Lammy. Everything Lammy failed to act on is Timothy's material for parliamentary questions. When Lammy's non-engagement becomes public, Timothy is the person who asks the question in the House.
PARLIAMENT
Andy Slaughter MP	Chair, Justice Committee	andy.slaughter.mp@parliament.uk justicecom@parliament.uk	Received 11 written-evidence submissions across 78 days. Zero substantive engagement. As Chair of the committee that scrutinises the Ministry of Justice, HMCTS, the CPS, and the SFO, he has a constitutional responsibility to at least acknowledge matters within his remit. Will be asked: "Why did you not respond to any of eleven submissions?"
Joe Powell MP	Constituency MP (Kensington & Bayswater)	joe.powell.mp@parliament.uk	Constituent request. No response since 2025. Failed to engage with any aspect of a disabled constituent's case. Did not make the PHSO referral despite being asked. PHSO accepted the complaint directly and noted MP endorsement would normally be required.
Liaison Committee	Oversees all select committees	liaison@parliament.uk	Monitors whether select committees are fulfilling their remit. The Justice Committee's zero substantive engagement across 11 submissions is within the Liaison Committee's oversight function.
House of Lords Justice and Home Affairs Committee	Lords equivalent of Justice Committee	HLJusticeHomeAffairs@parliament.uk	Examines justice, criminal justice, and civil justice. A separate channel from the Commons committee. Fresh audience with no prior engagement to defend.
COURTS / HMCTS — SENIOR JUDICIARY

Sir Geoffrey Vos PC	Master of the Rolls	Senior administrative head of the Civil Division	Has been on notice of these proceedings since the Court of Appeal stage. Holds administrative oversight of the civil courts. Has not engaged with the matters raised. His office is the body to whom systemic concerns about the conduct of civil and family proceedings are escalated.
Sir Andrew McFarlane	President of the Family Division	Senior administrative head of the Family Division	Holds administrative oversight of the Family Division, including BV20D01752. Has been on notice of the participation-measures issue, the recusal application pending 15 months, and the EX107 transcript refusal. Has not engaged.
COURTS / HMCTS — ADMINISTRATION
Dr Jo Farrar CB OBE	Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Justice	via MoJ correspondence	Most senior civil servant in the MoJ. Principal Accounting Officer — personally responsible for the proper use of resources authorised by Parliament. HMCTS reports to her. Every administrative failure in HMCTS — participation measures, audio recordings, EX107 processing, CPR 3.1(7) delays — is ultimately within her accountability.
Nick Goodwin	Chief Executive, HMCTS	via HMCTS correspondence	Operational head of HMCTS since March 2022. Directly responsible for how courts process applications, maintain audio recordings, handle transcript requests, and administer participation measures. Every HMCTS failure in this case occurred on his watch. The CPR 3.1(7) sitting for 50 days without assignment, the EX107 one-line refusal, the audio unavailability — these are operational failures within his direct responsibility.

HMCTS — Family Division	Court administration	rcj.familyhighcourt@justice.gov.uk	22 disability references suppressed from judgment. Participation measures revoked without order. Recusal undetermined 15 months. EX107 refused without engaging grounds. Transcript audio reported unavailable for the date submitted. Accountable for chain of custody of court recordings and for processing participation measure requests.
HMCTS — Administrative Court	Court administration	administrativecourtoffic.e.caseprogression@justice.gov.uk	CPR 3.1(7) sealed 50 days without assignment to a judge. N244 expedition sealed 22 days without assignment. The order of Collins Rice J addresses matters not pleaded and does not address Ground 7. The court's own correction mechanism has not been engaged.
Master Pester	Master, Chancery Division — BL-2024-001217	chanceryjudgeslisting@justice.gov.uk	Hearing in Detach Lending Limited v Zahmoul vacated 12 March 2026. N244 stay application of 24 March 2026 pending. Accountable for case management of Chancery enforcement of liability anchored in the suppressed-disability characterisation of the underlying family judgments.
Master Teverson	Master, Chancery Division — BL-2024-001217	chanceryjudgeslisting@justice.gov.uk	Issued directions on 16 April 2026 in the Detach proceedings. Sitting in retirement. Accountable for the directions made and for proper case management of the proceedings against a disabled litigant in person on no income.

Judicial Conduct Investigations Office	Investigates judicial conduct	via judiciary.uk	Recusal application undetermined 15 months. 22 disability references in oral evidence, zero in judgment. EX107 refused without reasons. If judicial conduct is examined, the JCIO is the investigating body.
LAW ENFORCEMENT
Commissioner Sir Mark Rowley	Commissioner, Metropolitan Police Service	CommissionersCorrespondence@met.police.uk	Received 522-page criminal referral package 30 March 2026. Four automated deflections. Eight reference numbers generated across six channels over 44 days. Operational engagement on 28 April 2026. Police-initiated Care Act s.42 safeguarding referral 17 April 2026 — adult-at-risk classification.
IOPC	Independent Office for Police Conduct	Transaction ID 2293476	Complaint filed 15 April 2026. MPS handling under review. Permanent record of MPS engagement with the criminal referral. Cannot be suppressed.
NCA Economic Crime Command	National Crime Agency	economiccrime@nca.gov.uk	Referral transmitted 23 March 2026. Follow-up 13 April. No response. Money laundering (POCA 2002 ss.327-330). Oxus sponsor funds. Rakishev.
REGULATORY AND OVERSIGHT BODIES
Equality and Human Rights Commission	Statutory equality regulator	Reference 14765260	Reference open since November 2025. Acknowledged but not engaged on substance. On notice of systemic Public Sector Equality Duty (s.149 EA 2010) failures across multiple courts. Has the power to investigate, intervene as a third party in litigation, and conduct formal inquiries. Has done none of these.
Victims' Commissioner	Statutory office; promotes interests of	Reference 260320NZ	On notice of police handling of a registered victims		criminal referral by an autistic complainant currently classified as an adult at risk under Care Act s.42. The Victims' Commissioner has a statutory function reviewing how police forces deliver the Victims' Code, including enhanced rights for vulnerable complainants.

PHSO	Parliamentary and Health Service Ombudsman	Reference C-2182742	Complaint accepted directly. The only institution to provide a substantive response. Investigation engaged with the documentary record.
SAFEGUARDING / HEALTH
Multi-Agency Safeguarding Hub (MASH)	Adult safeguarding partnership	Reference 0103/17APR26	Police-initiated Care Act s.42 referral made 17 April 2026 — adult-at-risk classification. Further engagement 29 April 2026. The safeguarding partner network is now on notice that an autistic, PTSD-diagnosed adult, currently homeless and without income, has been classified as an adult at risk by police following review of the documentary record.
Central and North West London NHS Foundation Trust	NHS Trust — CRHTT and CLAAS	via NHS clinical correspondence	Treating clinical team. Three clinical findings on the record (Dr Cheung, CLAAS, July 2025) attribute distress to the withdrawal of reasonable adjustments by the court. The NHS clinical record corroborates the institutional harm documented in this map.
INTERNATIONAL
IRS Criminal Investigation	US federal law enforcement	Special Agent Robert McGarry New York Field Office	Active investigation (reported). Rakishev sponsor funds. Oxus / Tavia SPAC structures. Operates outside UK jurisdiction. Cannot be suppressed domestically. When the US investigation produces results, every UK institution that was notified and did not act becomes accountable.

SEC	US Securities and Exchange Commission	TCR 17284-760-060-567	Whistleblower submission on record. Oxus and Tavia. Regulation S-K disclosure failure. Permanent US regulatory record.

This document is distributed to all named recipients as part of a serialised public record. It is updated to reflect institutional engagement received. To date, substantive engagement has been recorded from one institution (PHSO) and from law enforcement, which has initiated a Care Act s.42 safeguarding referral identifying the Complainant as an adult at risk.
